New Radio Single

Danya Holley

Meet Me At The Stockyards

Meet Me At The Stockyards is a song that captures the bittersweet ache of longing and the pull of an unfinished romance. Framed against the iconic backdrop of Fort Worth, Danya Holley delivers a heartfelt invitation to turn old memories into a brand-new beginning, blending small-town Texas imagery with timeless country storytelling.

RADIO SINGLE

Danya Holley is an American singer-songwriter from Texas who was born and raised in rural North Carolina. She moved to Texas many years ago and began writing many songs with her co-writer and producer, Eric Michael McKinney of Wonderland Studios, ATX.

Danya was formerly known as Danya Yousef and was the first foreign female with no previous Arabic training to learn Arabic and record an entire album of Egyptian pop music. Her debut album, "El Layla A'Shoofak" received very positive reviews and international radio play. Throughout her musical career she has fronted Top 40s, Jazz, Country, Mexican, and International bands. Danya also has a background performing a vast array of classical music. Danya is a Registered Nurse with Master's degrees in Sociology and Nursing. She is a United States Navy Veteran with a background in linguistics. She speaks English, Spanish, and Arabic.
